

GETTING STARTED

---

College of the Mainland (COM) is an open admission institution, and all students are welcome. COM does not discriminate on the basis of gender, disability, race, color, age, religion, national origin, or veteran status in its admission policies or practices. All persons who have at least one of the qualifications listed below are welcome to enroll.

- Current High School Students-Collegiate High School (<http://coursecatalog.com.edu/beginning-the-pathway/getting-started/current-high-school-student-collegiate-high-school-student>)
- Current High School Students-Dual Credit (<http://coursecatalog.com.edu/beginning-the-pathway/getting-started/current-high-school-student-dual-credit>)
- High school/GED graduate (<http://coursecatalog.com.edu/beginning-the-pathway/getting-started/high-school-ged-graduate>)
- Former Student (<http://coursecatalog.com.edu/beginning-the-pathway/getting-started/former-student>)
- ABE student enrolled in Career Pathway (<http://coursecatalog.com.edu/beginning-the-pathway/getting-started/abe-student-enrolled-career-pathway>)
- College or university transfer (<http://coursecatalog.com.edu/beginning-the-pathway/getting-started/transfer-student>)
- International Student (<http://coursecatalog.com.edu/beginning-the-pathway/getting-started/international-student>)
- Individual approval (<http://coursecatalog.com.edu/beginning-the-pathway/getting-started/individual-approval>)

Note: Some programs of instruction may have special requirements in addition to those normally required for admission to the College.